

INGALLS MEMORIAL HOSPITAL DIETETIC INTERNSHIP APPLICATION FOR APPOINTMENT

Ingalls Memorial Hospital participates in the dietetic internship centralized application process and the computer matching process endorsed by the American Dietetic Association. Details to access the on-line application form are being developed and instructions will be available at <https://portal.dicas.org> after December 8th. Instructions for the computer match process and deadline dates are available at www.dnndigit.com. Ingalls uses the deadlines established by the American Dietetic Association for the fall dietetic internships.

The application should be submitted on-line using the centralized process. The Ingalls Memorial Hospital Dietetic Internship is 2100.

Ingalls requires Recency of Education—6 semester or 9 quarter hours for degree earned over 5 years ago and 12 semester or 18 quarter hours for degree earned over 10 years ago. Foreign transcripts must be evaluated by an acceptable agency and evaluation must be included.

In addition, the following should be mailed directly to Ingalls by the deadline date established by ADA for the fall dietetic internships.
